5K run

Restaurants - school spirit nights

Cross country - will generate funds (up to $500)

Halloween on the farm

Hairy man fest

Need to figure out how many fundraisers we can have per season

Sponsorships - $10K is goal

Program Needs

Purchase - big cooler

Branding wrestling room - moving it from multipurpose room to a dedicated wrestling room: wall wraps, wrestling decals

Clothing: new varsity warmups

Wrestling Season

New cleaner for the mats - best to prevent skin issues

No overnight tournaments) - unknowns of covid - furthest we'll go is Killeen; common is Friday JV, Sat girls and guys Varsity

No entry fee but there are costs ($200)

feed the wrestlers option in Booster Club Store helps offset cost of feeding wrestlers at matches and tournaments

Cereal and do it yourself sandwiches, oatmeal cups

One of the bigger teams this year

Early November – Parent Meeting

Scheduled to go full season by UIL (football has full season, dependent on football)

Practices start prior – end of October, most likely AM before school

Season starts Nov 10 - first match

Lasts through February 14 (regionals), with State the following week

Program at McNeil is 8 years old

Wrestling is one of the fastest growing sports

Especially for girls, scholarship opportunities

17 in boys class – biggest class, 5-6 in girls class – need more recruits!

Team extras

Club wrestling demo 512outlaws (one of the outlaw coaches is with FLOW wrestling)

Sport needs year-round wrestling – supplement school program with:

Rock Wrestling (Coach Hopkins, Round Rock's wrestling coach)

Heart & Pride

3F – Lake Travis

Yoga instruction?

Nutritionist?

Health

New rules in wrestling – healthier – no more running miles in sweat suits to lose weight

Body fat test and wrestlers will know % allowed to lose or gain

One Pound allowance if wrestling two days in a row

Two Pound allowance after the winter holidays

Maintaining weight is tough

Duals – Wrestlers matched up by weight

Other possible events for Mav Wrestlers

Open House – Sept 15

What about Volunteer opportunities?
